

"LAUGH WHILE YOU LEARN"
perfectly captures the spirit of everything we do.

INTERACTING 2020

INTERNATIONAL
SUMMER SCHOOL OF THEATRE AND ENGLISH

Welcome to: INTERACTING "International Summer School of Theatre"

This course has been specifically designed for students who want more than just an English learning course. The InterActing International Summer School of Theatre and English combines all the elements of working together as a team and creating a theatre production while meeting new friends and it's all in English.

InterActing is one of the most creative and innovative Language Learning Theatre in Education companies on the European map.

InterActing's methodology in adapting games and drama for learning has been supported, tested and funded through our latest European project and published in our book PlayingCLIL.

After 25 years, InterActing continue to successfully develop creative and innovative solutions for language students from all over Europe.

At a glance

Aimed at: curious 12-18 year old students from across Europe.

Areas of instruction: improvisation, theatre games, acting, voice, movement, problem solving, team work and English.

Highlight: an end of course performance open to the public.

Other skills you will learn:

- Team work
- Decision making & Problem solving
- Self confidence
- Self awareness
- Improvisation
- Voice work
- Writing scripts
- Learning lines
- Staging
- Budgeting

During the course you will learn how to devise and perform a play of your own making.

The course runs from Monday to Friday of each week. Each day is made up of three basic interconnecting blocks:

- Games for Communication
- The Production Process
- The Living Language

At the weekends there is time to enjoy Ireland, visit friends, go to the beach, go shopping, go for walks, staying out of the rain!

INTERACTING IT'S ALL ABOUT (A) PLAY

All of our staff have relevant professional qualifications and experience.

Your safety is our priority! We will make sure that you always have someone to help you out.

Arriving in a new country and city will be an experience you will remember for life. At InterActing, we make sure you feel happy and safe at all times!

Activities and excursions

One of our objectives of the summer school is to improve students knowledge about the Irish and English culture. To achieve this we organize full day excursions each week to places of interest near our teaching location.

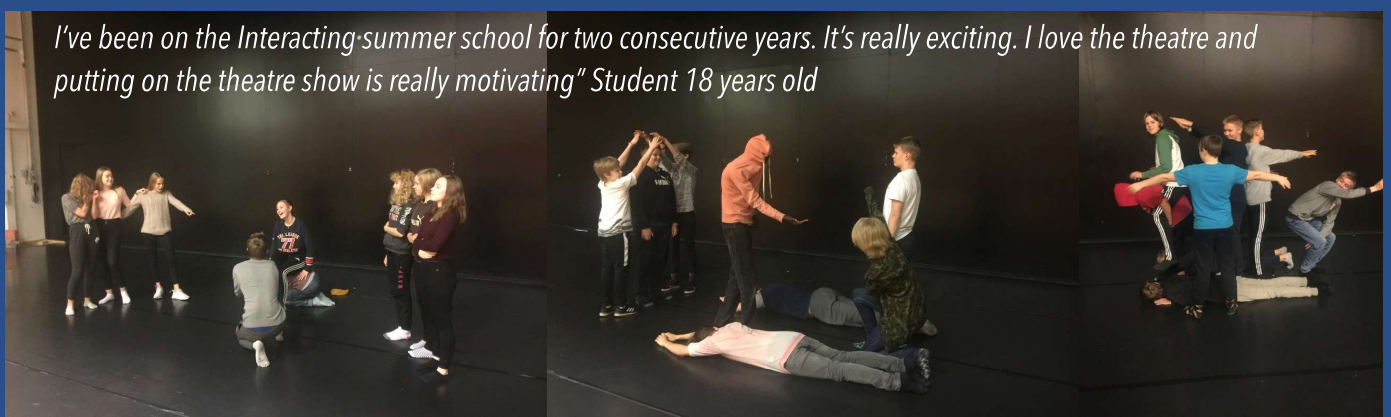

BELFAST

The InterActing Summer School in Belfast is held at Queens University. We offer residential accommodation in Queens Elms apartments.

All this in an international environment meeting friends from all over Europe.

"I've been on the Interacting summer school for two consecutive years. It's really exciting. I love the theatre and putting on the theatre show is really motivating" Student 18 years old

What's included?

- Airport transfers
- Residential accommodation
- Homestay
- Outdoor activities
- Planned cultural and social events
- Excursions of historical and monumental interest, shopping and educational visits

Dates: from 29th June to 19th July 2020

Our Prices:

- ⊙ Including flight: 2.950 €
- ⊙ No flight included: 2.660 €
- ⊙ Course Matriculation:
(this will be discounted from your total price) 500€

¡LIMITED PLACES!

Summer School Essence The Interacting Summer School brings our philosophy of learning through games and theatre into practice. You will experience running your own theatre company for three weeks, facing the challenges of an opening night at the end of the course.

Edward Cousins & Patrick Deas

the founders and directors Leading the way in innovation and education.

Group discounts and payment facilities are available. Please contact us on reservas@interacting.info or by calling us on

+34 915400783

InterActing S.L. - Calle Siena 25, local - 28027 - Madrid - www.interacting.info